2020 Rosé of Tannat

— - Vintage

Amidst a global pandemic, we had high hopes that the 2020 growing season would give us some sense of normalcy. These hopes were dashed after a series of late spring frosts - the last of which took place on May 9th. Our Estate Vineyard lost nearly 100% of production. Fortunately, we were able to source from friends and colleagues throughout the state who fared slightly better.

— - Vineyard

The 2020 Rosé of Tannat showcases fruit from our friends at Horton Vineyards. Dennis Horton planted the first of his 55 acres in 1988. Known for his willingness to experiment with varietals, he is generally credited with bringing Tannat to Virginia.

— - Winemaker's Notes

Best known as a deeply colored, tannic varietal, Tannat makes a delicate and fruity rosé when pressed immediately off its skins. Ripe white blossom and grapefruit are perfectly complimented by a vibrant acidity.
